Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Abbreviations xiii

1. Introduction 1

PART I. The Practice of Animal Sacrifice in the Roman Empire

Prologue: The Sacrifices of Nestor (Odyssey 3.5–66 and 418–72) 21

2. The Economics of Animal Sacrifice 26

3. Animal Sacrifice and Euergetism in the Roman Empire 41

4. Animal Sacrifice and Graeco-Roman Culture 81

5. Animal Sacrifice and the Roman Emperor 114

Epilogue 147

PART II. Discourses of Animal Sacrifice in Graeco-Roman Culture and Early Christianity

Prologue: Paul and Barnabas at Lystra (Acts 14.8–18) 153

6. Theorizing Animal Sacrifice I: From Hesiod to Plutarch (c. 700 BCE–c. 100 CE) 157

7. The Early Christian Displacement of Animal Sacrifice (c. 50–c. 150 CE) 186

8. Theorizing Animal Sacrifice II: From Apollonius to Iamblichus (c. 100–c. 300 CE) 214

Epilogue 241

PART III. Transformations of Animal Sacrifice in Late Antiquity

Prologue: The Decree of Decius (SB I.443) 247

9. The Obligations of Empire: Decius to the Tetrarchs (250–313 CE) 251

10. From Roman to Pagan: Constantine to Theodosius I (313–395 CE) 291

Epilogue 332

11. The End of Animal Sacrifice? 336

References 353

Index 387